

Please do not allow the use of cellular telephones on planes. I travel 3 to 4 days a week and with the current stress levels of traveling I am afraid that it would incite many problems and pose a safety issue onboard. Most people are not considerate of their voice levels while talking on their phones and in such a cramped space it would create a lot of unnecessary problems. Thank you.